

Mechanical / Electrical / Project Engineers

Providing a comprehensive engineering function in all aspect of cranes, lifting and support service activities. The role encompasses:

- Project Engineering.
- Business Promotion & Establishment.
- Business Administration.

You will be involved in the preparation of proposals and tenders, administration of assigned project files, liaising with clients and subcontractors, preparing calculations and work procedures, completion of purchase requisitions, arrange equipment dispatch and transportation, compilation of job close-out reports, preparation of engineering invoice drafts and financial control of assigned projects and, in conjunction with the Engineering Services Manager, identify areas for business development.

You should be HND / Degree qualified and have previous experience within a project engineering discipline.

Previous offshore experience and an extensive knowledge of crane or mechanical handling systems, is desirable.

Specialist training will be provided, as will mentoring from experienced engineering colleagues.