

Onshore Mechanics

You should have completed a recognised Mechanical Apprenticeship within an Engineering background. The role involves gearbox/winches rebuild, fault diagnoses, repairs, refurbishment of a range of mechanical equipment, ability to read hydraulics/pneumatics drawings desirable.

You will be required to carry out mechanical repairs adhering to client specifications as detailed on the relevant job card or standing instructions issued by Mechanical Foreman.

You will have responsible for checking plant/equipment prior to use highlighting any faults or defects to Mechanical Foreman.